Intuit Young Professionals Board Responsibilities Overview

Intuit Mission

Intuit's mission is to champion diverse artistic voices and pathways, inviting all to explore the power of outsider art. Founded in 1991, Intuit is a premier museum of outsider and self-taught art, defined as work created by artists who faced marginalization, overcame personal odds to make their artwork, and who didn't, or sometimes couldn't, follow a traditional path of art making, often using materials at hand to realize their artistic vision. By presenting a diversity of artistic voices, Intuit builds a bridge from art to audience. The museum's mission is grounded in the ethos that powerful art can be found in unexpected places and made by unexpected creators.

Young Professionals Board ("YoPro") Mission

The Young Professionals Board ignites passion and curiosity around outsider art, fostering the next generation of Intuit's champions and leaders.
